

Payroll Policy

Effective Date:

Policy effective from date - 7 November 2025

Disclaimer: The company reserves the right to alter or withdraw the policy at any point of time.

Payroll -

- Each employee has to provide their account details and pan card for payroll.
- Salary accounts will be opened by the bank within a week from the DOJ.
- Salary will be transferred to employees on or before the 7th of each month.
- Salary slips will be available on request for now and in future tools will be provided to download it.
- Employees who joined after the 20th of any month will receive salary with following month payroll processing.

Note- Please raise a ticket to the accounts department (Gaurav.Sharma@devstringx.com) at HRMS in case you need the salary slips.

Salary Holding-

- If the employee is on notice period then payroll will not be processed for that employee in the first month of notice period and second month payroll will be processed. First month salary along with other amounts, if any, will be given in F&F after 45 days of leaving the company.

Full and Final Settlement

The Full and Final amount is paid to the employee within 45 days after recovering all the advances / outstanding dues if any.

Along with full and final settlement, the following items will be taken care of:

Balance salary payable / recoverable, Recoveries for PF, Income Tax, Bonus

Advance Pay Benefit

1. Objective

The purpose of this policy is to define the conditions under which employees may request and receive salary advances or emergency financial assistance from the company.

2. Eligibility

- All confirmed full-time employees are eligible to apply for a salary advance.
 - Employees serving their probation period will not be eligible to avail the Advance Pay benefit.
 - Employees serving the notice period will not be entitled to avail the benefits under the Advance Pay Policy.
 - Employees are required to submit advance payment requests a minimum of one week and up to fifteen days prior to the payroll processing date.
-

3. Limit

- The advance amount will be determined based on the employee's gross salary.
 - Employees may avail an advance up to three times their gross salary, subject to management approval and company discretion.
 - Only one advance can be taken at a time. The next advance may be requested only after the previous one has been fully recovered.
-

4. Approval Process

- Employees must raise a ticket to the Finance Department to request advance payment.
- Finance verifies eligibility and pending recoveries.
- The request is reviewed and approved by the Department Head and Finance.
- Payment is made via regular salary disbursement channel.

5. Recovery Process

- The recovery terms — including deduction amount and duration — must be mutually agreed upon in writing by the employee and the Finance Department before the advance is released.
 - The approved advance amount will be deducted from the subsequent month's salary as per the agreed schedule between the employee and the Finance Department.
 - Deductions will be made in reasonable amounts to avoid undue financial burden on the employee.
 - In cases such as resignation, termination, or long absence without notice, the organization reserves the right to recover the outstanding advance from any dues payable to the employee.
 - Deduction should not cross the financial year.
 - Any unpaid advance amount will be recovered and adjusted during the Full and Final Settlement process.
-

6. Conditions

- Advances are not a right and are subject to management's discretion.
 - Approval of advance payment is subject to management discretion and company financial policies.
 - Misuse of the advance facility may lead to withdrawal of eligibility for future requests.
 - In case of resignation or separation, any pending advance amount will be adjusted against final settlement.
 - No interest is charged on approved advances.
-

Disclaimer:

The company reserves the right to modify or withdraw this policy at any time without prior notice.