

Referral Policy

Effective Date:

Policy effective from date - 1 August 2022

Disclaimer: The company reserves the right to alter or withdraw the policy at any point of time.

Purpose

To state the procedures and guidelines for rewarding those employees of the company, who help identify and attract suitable and competent talent in order to meet our resource requirements at an optimum cost.

Eligibility

All employees (with exceptions mentioned below) are eligible to participate in the Employee Referral Award Program.

Exceptions

- Members of the Human Resources Department.
- Any level of management within the hiring authority of the open position.
- Any employee who has resigned from the company.

Submissions

- Employees may refer individuals who fit the specifications given in job descriptions for vacant positions which Human Resources posts from time to time. In case the resume is already available in the data bank, the referral process will be terminated at this stage.
- The referrer needs to fill up the employee referral form and submit it to the HR department along with the resume of the candidate. The form is available at the HRMS portal.

- The employee role will be limited to the submission of the resume of the candidate. After This, the regular process of shortlisting and interviews will be applied to the referrals also.
- The employee making the referral will not in any way be involved with the interview of the candidate.

 - L10 - INR 50000
- The referral bonus will be paid, in one installment, after the referred employee has completed three months on the job.

Referral Programme Guidelines

- If more than one employee refers to the same candidate, the first referral will only be considered. The rest of the employees will be intimated of the same.
- If resumes are received from more than one source including referrals. First received source will be considered. If a candidate applies in response to an advertisement or through a recruitment agency and is later also referred by an employee, the referral by the employee will not be considered irrespective of whether the candidate later prefers any one route over the other.
- All referred candidates will be hired through the company's standard hiring process.
- If an employee forwards resumes carrying stamps of external recruiters, such resumes will not be eligible for referrals.

- The HR department will intimate the employee if the referred candidate is selected. The employees are welcome to query the HR on the status of their sent candidates.
- The referral bonus payment is considered as a perquisite and will be taxed accordingly as per the applicable tax slab.
- All resumes sent under the referral program are valid for a period of 1 month.
- Referrals Payments will not be made in the following case:

An employee who is rehired within twelve (12) months of his/her resignation/termination date.

The bonus amount and eligibility factors are subject to change based on business needs, as circumstances.
